August 7, 2018

Dedicated Shopping Day with Amazing Offers, Backpack Advice and Chance to Win Back-To-School Prizes

DODGEVILLE, Wis., Aug. 7, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- To help parents and kids get ready for the important first day of school, Lands' End is hosting "Backpack Day" today, August 7, 2018, featuring extraordinary offers, advice and the chance to win back-to-school prizes. More than half (55 percent) of parents surveyed recently by Lands' End stated kids will head back to class the last two weeks of August, making Backpack Day the perfect time to discover and purchase the most important back to school necessity.

"We know backpacks have become the most important back to school essential because kids are transporting more than just school supplies. Today's students are also toting along personal items, tech gear and everything they need for after-school activities," said Gill Hong, EVP, Chief Merchandising Officer and Head of International, Lands' End. "That's why at Lands' End, we strive every year to build better backpacks to evolve and meet the growing needs of kids and parents while also offering a dedicated day like Backpack Day to discover the best backpacks at the greatest value."
